

JODIE GALLANT

Jodie Gallant helps entrepreneurs live their best life through the vehicle of their business.

She has spent close to 20 years in the business branding, marketing, and community leadership game, making her mark in the corporate marketing world before moving on to have ownership in five businesses including her very own JMG Marketing & Business Strategy and Jodie Gallant Business Coaching. With a passion and knack for business strategy and a true understanding of the challenges of being a business owner, Jodie shows her coaching and agency clients that growing a business doesn't have to be hard. She supports them in discovering their vision of success and building the right strategies to get there, so they can live the life of their dreams.
